ORDER FOR SEXUALLY TRANSMISSIBLE DISEASES (HIV/AIDS) MEDICAL TESTING

Pursuant to 705 ILCS 405/5-710(9), the Court finds that the minor has been found guilty for an act set forth in said section which requires that the minor undergo medical testing to determine whether the minor has any sexually transmissible disease.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, as follows:

A. The minor shall undergo medical testing to determine whether the minor has any sexually transmissible disease, including a test for infection with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) or any other identified causative agency of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS).

B. Any medical tests shall be performed only by any appropriately licensed medical practitioners and may include an analysis of any bodily fluids as well as an examination of the minor's person.

C. Except as otherwise provided by law, the results of such tests shall be kept strictly confidential by all medical personnel involved in the testing.

D. The results of such test shall be personally delivered in a sealed envelope to the Judge of the Court in which the Sentencing Order was entered for the judge's inspection, in camera.

E. The cost of any such test shall be paid by the county and be taxed as costs against the minor.
